SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT

Thank you for choosing the Dakim® BrainFitness Software ("Software"). This Software License Agreement constitutes the agreement ("Agreement") between you ("Customer") and Dakim, Inc., a Delaware corporation having its principle address at 2121 Cloverfield Blvd., Suite 205, Santa Monica, CA 90404 ("Dakim"). Please read this Agreement carefully before using the Software. By using the Software, you agree to be bound by the terms of the Agreement. If you do not accept the terms of the Agreement, promptly return the Software in its original packaging, at your expense, to Dakim for a refund of the purchase price and fees you paid to Dakim.

1. Software Description and Requirements

    a. The Software is a computer-based tool that allows individuals licensed to use the Software in accordance with the terms of this Agreement ("Users") to perform brain fitness exercises to help promote brain health and cognitive fitness.

    b. The Software includes computer programs and code ("Program"), and audio, video, and other media content ("Content"). Purchase of the Software includes an initial one-year subscription to receive Program and Content updates, maintenance, and other support services ("Services").

    c. The Software provides personalization and automatic adjustment of level of difficulty for up to 10 individual Users based on each User's profile and past performance. To enjoy the full benefits of the Software, each User must set up a unique user profile by entering his or her name and date of birth and selecting an initial level of challenge.

    d. To receive certain Services, the computer on which the Software is installed must have access to the Internet via a high-speed connection. It is your responsibility to provide Internet access with a minimum download speed of 768k bits per second; Dakim does not provide Internet access, and such access is not included with the Software. Other requirements for the Software to function properly, including minimum operating requirements for the computer on which the Software is installed, are listed in the Software operating manual ("Manual").

    e. The Software will download and install Program and Content updates automatically in the background while the Software application is open. If a User quits the application before updates are complete, the update process will resume when the application is next opened. As part of the update process, the Software may transmit to Dakim via the Internet certain technical information, such as your Software serial number and the type and version of your computer's operating system, to facilitate the provision of Services to you. By using the Software, you consent to the transmission of this information to Dakim.

    f. Dakim may — without further notice to you — change, add, update, upgrade, amend or remove features, functionality, and content of the Software and Services.

2. License Grant

    a. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, Dakim grants you a limited, non-exclusive license to install the Software on one computer for one User to access and use the Software for personal, family, or household use within the United States for the limited purpose of performing brain fitness exercises in accordance with the terms of this Agreement ("License"). For purposes of this Agreement, the use by a resident of a senior living community of Software that is licensed to the senior living community shall constitute personal use. Upon payment for the Software, the License becomes perpetual.

b. Upon payment of the applicable license and Services subscription fees for an additional User ("Additional User License and Subscription Fees"), one additional individual may use the Software under your License. A total of up to10 different individuals may use the Software under your License.

c. This License covers and applies to Software updates received during your Services subscription.

3. Services Subscription

a. The initial one-year Services subscription commences upon registration of the Software.

b. Upon expiration of the initial one-year Services subscription, you will have the option to renew the Services subscription upon the terms and at the prices then in effect. You will not receive Services after expiration of the initial Services subscription unless you renew your Services subscription.

4. Installation, Trial Period, and Registration

a. You may install a copy of the Software on one computer, and try out the Software for a period of ten (10) days from installation of the Software ("Trial Period") without having to register the Software with Dakim. You will not receive Services, however, until you pay for and register the Software.

b. To use the Software after expiration of the Trial Period (and to receive Services), you must pay for the Software and register the Software with Dakim. If you do not pay for and register the Software, the Software will not function and your License will terminate upon expiration of the Trial Period.

c. Upon payment for the Software, Dakim will provide you with a serial number for your Software. After expiration of the Trial Period, the Software will prompt you to enter the serial number in order to continue using the Software.

d. Provided you have paid for the Software, you may register the Software prior to the expiration of the Trial Period, in which case the Trial Period will terminate and your initial Services subscription will commence with registration. You may also pay for and register the Software after expiration of the Trial Period.

5. Money-Back Guarantee

a. Dakim is committed to your satisfaction as a customer, and offers a 30-day, money-back satisfaction guarantee ("Guarantee"). If for any reason you are not satisfied with the Software, you may return it to the selling retailer within 30 days of the date of purchase for a full refund of the amount you paid. If you purchased directly from Dakim, you may return it to Dakim within 30 days of the date of purchase for a full refund of the amount you paid Dakim, minus any shipping charges listed on your receipt. To qualify for a refund, returns must include the original box and all the contents including the blue card with the serial number).

b. To return the Software to Dakim, please call Dakim Customer Service at (888) 693-2546 and request a Return Merchandise Authorization ("RMA") number. Write the RMA number on your receipt or other proof of purchase, and, within 30 days of the date of purchase, return at your expense the Software DVDs, and any accompanying materials in their original packaging, in like-new condition, along with proof of purchase, to:

> Dakim, Inc.
> 2121 Cloverfield Boulevard; Suite 205
> Santa Monica, CA 90404

c. You can expect a refund within 30 days of Dakim's receipt of your return. We will make the refund to you by the same form of payment used in your original purchase.

6. Limited Warranty

a. Dakim warrants to Customer that if you follow the instructions in the Manual, Users will be able to use the Software to perform brain fitness exercises substantially as described in the Manual.

b. This limited warranty covers the Software for a period of 30 days from registration of the Software.

c. If during the warranty period a User is unable to use the Software to perform brain fitness exercises as warranted due to a material and reproducible Software failure or malfunction, Dakim will, at its option, either: (i) repair the Software; or (ii) replace the Software. Please see Section 8 of this Agreement for instructions about obtaining warranty service.

d. If Dakim cannot repair or replace the Software, Dakim will refund the amount you paid Dakim, including shipping charges. You will be required to uninstall the Software, delete any backup copy, and return the Software and associated materials to Dakim to obtain a refund.

e. This limited warranty does not cover problems caused by: (1) a failure to follow Software operating instructions provided in the Manuals; (2) Internet connectivity issues at the User's location; (3) accident, misuse, neglect, fire or other external causes; (4) unauthorized use; (5) unauthorized modifications, alterations, or repair of the Software; (6) other acts (or failures to act) by you or others; or (7) events beyond Dakim's reasonable control.

f. This limited warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may also have other rights, which vary from state to state.

g. This limited warranty is subject to the exclusions and limitations on liability and damages set forth in Sections 7 and 9 of this Agreement.

7. Warranty Disclaimers

a. To the extent permitted by law, the limited warranty and remedies set forth in this Agreement are exclusive and in place of all other warranties and remedies, and DAKIM DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL OTHER WARRANTIES of any kind, express or implied, including any implied warranty against interference, infringement, or the like, and any implied warranty of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, accuracy or non-infringement of third-party rights. To the extent permitted by law, any such statutory or implied warranties that cannot lawfully be disclaimed shall be limited in duration to the duration of the express limited warranty set forth in Section 6 of this Agreement, and the remedy for breach of any such statutory or implied warranty shall be limited to repair or replacement of the Software, as determined by Dakim in its sole discretion. Some states do not allow exclusion of implied warranties or limitations on how long an implied warranty lasts, so the above limitations may not apply to you.

b.   Dakim does not warrant, represent, or promise that the Software will meet your or a User's specific requirements, that the use of the Software will be uninterrupted, timely, secure, or error-free, or that Dakim will provide Program or Content updates or upgrades at any particular time or on any specific schedule.

c.   Dakim makes no warranty, representation or promise:

   i.   as to the accuracy or reliability of any information presented in the Content, whether that Content is proprietary to Dakim or a third party; or

   ii.   that the Software, Services, and complimentary headset (if any) will be compatible with any other particular equipment, hardware, software or service.

d.   Nothing in the Manual constitutes a promise, warranty, or obligation of Dakim.

8.   Instructions for Warranty Service

a.   To obtain warranty service, please contact Dakim Customer Service by calling Dakim's toll free number at 800-853-7289, by sending an email to support@dakim.com, or by writing to Dakim at 2121 Cloverfield Blvd., Suite 205, Santa Monica, CA 90404.

b.   You must allow Dakim representatives reasonable access to the Software through the Internet to perform diagnostics and, if needed, to provide repairs. If Dakim determines that the Software cannot be repaired remotely through electronic transmission, you will need to return the Software to Dakim, at your expense, to an address specified by Dakim. You should deliver the Software DVDs to Dakim in either the original packaging or in equally protective packaging.

9.   Limitations on Liability and Damages

a.   In no event will Dakim be liable to Customer or a User for any indirect, consequential, special, or incidental damages arising from or relating to this Agreement, or for any use of the Software. Some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so this limitation/exclusion may not apply.

b.   Dakim's total cumulative liability under and relating to this Agreement will not exceed the aggregate amount Customer pays to Dakim for the Software and Services.

10.   Scope of License

a.   The Content is to be accessed and used only with and through the Software.

b.   You may not, and may not permit others, to:

i. decompile, disassemble, distribute, tamper with, provide unauthorized access to, sell, rent, lease, exchange, transfer ownership of, sublicense, broadcast, publish, publicly display, modify, create a derivative work based upon, or reverse engineer the Software;

ii. reproduce, prepare derivative works of, distribute, perform, or publicly display Content or other material copyrighted by Dakim or a third party without the prior written permission of the copyright holder; or,

iii. use or access the Software other than for personal, family, or household use.

c. You may make one backup copy of the Software DVDs. You may use the backup copy only to reinstall the Software on the computer on which the Software is registered. You may not otherwise copy the Software except as expressly authorized by law or this Agreement.

d. Violation or breach of any restriction, limitation, or other provision of this Agreement automatically terminates your License and all rights thereby granted to you. Upon termination of your License for violation or breach of this Agreement, Dakim shall have the right to exercise any and all remedies to which it may be entitled, including electronic self-help such as remote disabling of the Software.

e. Ownership of and title to any medium in which Software is delivered to you passes to you upon your payment of the purchase price and the delivery of the medium to you.

f. Third parties whose software or content is made available to you as part of the Software or Services retain title to and ownership of the respective software, content, copyrights, trademarks, and other intellectual property rights.

g. The Software includes third parties' software — including Open Source Software — that Dakim has permission to use, modify, copy, and distribute. Many of those third-party licensors impose certain restrictions or requirements on use of their software and require or request that certain notices or disclosures be given to end-users and Dakim's licensees. Please refer to Appendix A to this Agreement for further details about third-party software.

11. Transfer of Software

a. You may transfer the Software to, and register it for use on, another computer. To do so, you must deactivate the earlier installation and, once the Software is installed on the new computer, re-register the Software with Dakim. Services will continue upon re-registration for the remainder of your existing Services subscription term.

b. You may not sell the Software to a third-party. You may, however, transfer the Software, any unexpired Services subscription, and associated License to an individual person, provided that:

i. you do not charge for the transfer;

ii. the person to whom you transfer the Software agrees to and accepts the terms of this Agreement as a condition of the transfer;

iii. you uninstall the Software from your computer and destroy any backup copy; and

       iv.   you deactivate your registered installation.

   c. You may allow another person to use your Software DVDs to install the Software on another computer without transferring the License to such person or deactivating your registration. The person who installs the Software with your DVDs will be able to try the Software for free for a Trial Period as provided in Section 4 of this Agreement but must pay for and register the Software with Dakim upon expiration of the Trial Period in order to continue using the Software and to receive Services.

   d. You must uninstall the Software and deactivate your registered installation prior to transferring, abandoning, or otherwise disposing of the computer on which the Software is installed.

   e. To deactivate the registered installation of the Software or to re-register the Software upon transfer, please contact Dakim Customer Service at (888) 693-2546 for instructions on how to do so.

12. Payment

   a. Dakim may accept as payment an approved credit or debit card.

   b. You must pay the purchase price for the Software, which includes an initial one-year Services subscription, before you can register the Software with Dakim.

   c. You must pay the applicable Additional User License and Subscription Fees in effect at the time you add Users before additional Users are licensed to use the Software. The Additional User Subscription Fee(s) will be prorated based on the proportion of your Services subscription term remaining at the time you add additional User(s).

   d. To continue to receive Services after expiration of your Services subscription term, you must pay to renew your subscription upon the terms and at the prices then in effect.

   e. If required by law, Dakim will charge you sales tax in addition to the purchase price based on your shipping address and the sales tax rate in effect for the state to which your order is being shipped at the time your order is billed.

13. Confidentiality and Use of Information

   a. Dakim may incorporate any suggestions that you or a User may make to Dakim into the Software or any commercial product without compensation to you. It is acknowledged and agreed by the parties that you do not have any property rights or proprietary claim to those suggestions.

   b. Subject to your prior approval, Dakim has the right to use your name, address, testimonial, comments, opinions, or other similar information for marketing and advertising purposes.

   c. Dakim respects your privacy and will keep personal information confidential, and will ensure its employees, contractors, and agents keep such information confidential. You acknowledge and agree, however, that Dakim may collect raw data generated by Software usage and may use such data in any way that does not reveal confidential or personal information to third parties.

14. Miscellaneous Provisions

    a. Export Restrictions. The Software is subject to United States export laws and regulations. You must comply with all domestic and international export laws and regulations that apply to the Software. These laws include restrictions on destinations, end users and end use.

    b. Choice of Venue and Law. The parties acknowledge and agree that this Agreement is being formed, and will be substantially performed, in Los Angeles County, California. Any legal action related to this Agreement shall be governed, construed, and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of California, and venue shall be exclusively in Los Angeles County, California.

    c. Merger Clause. There are no oral or written representations, understandings, or agreements that are not fully expressed in this Agreement. Only a written instrument duly executed by you and Dakim may amend this Agreement.

    d. Severability. If a Court or other competent tribunal declares any provision of this Agreement invalid, all other provisions not declared invalid shall remain in effect.

    e. Succession and Assignment. The terms of this Agreement shall apply to and shall be binding upon a party's successors in interest. You may not sell, assign, or otherwise transfer your rights, benefits, and obligations under this Agreement except as expressly authorized in this Agreement without Dakim's prior written consent, and any attempt by you to do so shall be null and void. You agree that Dakim may sell, assign, or transfer its rights, benefits, or obligations under this Agreement without your consent.

    f. Force Majeure. No delay, failure, or omission on the part of Dakim to perform, or observe any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall give rise to any claim against or be deemed a breach of this Agreement if such delay, failure, or omission arises in whole from any cause or causes that are beyond Dakim's control — whether such events exist on the date of this Agreement or arise thereafter — including, without limitation: fires, explosions, or other similar property casualties; adverse meteorological or geological conditions; acts of God; strikes, lockouts, boycotts, or other labor or industrial strife; acts of war; insurrections, riots, or other civil disturbances; epidemics; and, delays or failures of carriers.

    g. Future Transactions. Dakim reserves the right to change the terms and conditions applicable to any future transaction or agreement between you and Dakim.

Preamble

The licenses for most software are designed to take away your freedom to share and change it. By contrast, the GNU General Public License is intended to guarantee your freedom to share and change free software--to make sure the software is free for all its users. This General Public License applies to most of the Free Software Foundation's software and to any other program whose authors commit to using it. (Some other Free Software Foundation software is covered by the GNU Lesser General Public License instead.) You can apply it to your programs, too.

When we speak of free software, we are referring to freedom, not price. Our General Public Licenses are designed to make sure that you have the freedom to distribute copies of free software (and charge for this service if you wish), that you receive source code or can get it if you want it, that you can change the software or use pieces of it in new free programs; and that you know you can do these things.

To protect your rights, we need to make restrictions that forbid anyone to deny you these rights or to ask you to surrender the rights. These restrictions translate to certain responsibilities for you if you distribute copies of the software, or if you modify it.

For example, if you distribute copies of such a program, whether gratis or for a fee, you must give the recipients all the rights that you have. You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get the source code. And you must show them these terms so they know their rights.

We protect your rights with two steps: (1) copyright the software, and (2) offer you this license which gives you legal permission to copy, distribute and/or modify the software.

Also, for each author's protection and ours, we want to make certain that everyone understands that there is no warranty for this free software. If the software is modified by someone else and passed on, we want its recipients to know that what they have is not the original, so that any problems introduced by others will not reflect on the original authors' reputations.

Finally, any free program is threatened constantly by software patents. We wish to avoid the danger that redistributors of a free program will individually obtain patent licenses, in effect making the program proprietary. To prevent this, we have made it clear that any patent must be licensed for everyone's free use or not licensed at all.

The precise terms and conditions for copying, distribution and modification follow.

GNU GENERAL PUBLIC LICENSE
TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COPYING, DISTRIBUTION AND MODIFICATION

0. This License applies to any program or other work which contains a notice placed by the copyright holder saying it may be distributed under the terms of this General Public License. The "Program", below, refers to any such program or work, and a "work based on the Program" means either the Program or any derivative work under copyright law: that is to say, a work containing the Program or a portion of it, either verbatim or with modifications and/or translated into another language. (Hereinafter, translation is included without limitation in the term "modification".) Each licensee is addressed as "you".

Activities other than copying, distribution and modification are not covered by this License; they are outside its scope. The act of running the Program is not restricted, and the output from the Program is covered only if its contents constitute a work based on the Program (independent of having been made by running the Program). Whether that is true depends on what the Program does.

1. You may copy and distribute verbatim copies of the Program's source code as you receive it, in any medium, provided that you conspicuously and appropriately publish on each copy an appropriate copyright notice and disclaimer of warranty; keep intact all the notices that refer to this License and to the absence of any warranty; and give any other recipients of the Program a copy of this License along with the Program.

You may charge a fee for the physical act of transferring a copy, and you may at your option offer warranty protection in exchange for a fee.

2. You may modify your copy or copies of the Program or any portion of it, thus forming a work based on the Program, and copy and distribute such modifications or work under the terms of Section 1 above, provided that you also meet all of these conditions:

a) You must cause the modified files to carry prominent notices stating that you changed the files and the date of any change.

b) You must cause any work that you distribute or publish, that in whole or in part contains or is derived from the Program or any part thereof, to be licensed as a whole at no charge to all third parties under the terms of this License.

c) If the modified program normally reads commands interactively when run, you must cause it, when started running for such interactive use in the most ordinary way, to print or display an announcement including an appropriate copyright notice and a notice that there is no warranty (or else, saying that you provide a warranty) and that users may redistribute the program under these conditions, and telling the user how to view a copy of this License.

(Exception: if the Program itself is interactive but does not normally print such an announcement, your work based on the Program is not required to print an announcement.)

These requirements apply to the modified work as a whole. If identifiable sections of that work are not derived from the Program, and can be reasonably considered independent and separate works in themselves, then this License, and its terms, do not apply to those sections when you distribute them as separate works. But when you distribute the same sections as part of a whole which is a work based on the Program, the distribution of the whole must be on the terms of this License, whose permissions for other licensees extend to the entire whole, and thus to each and every part regardless of who wrote it.

Thus, it is not the intent of this section to claim rights or contest your rights to work written entirely by you; rather, the intent is to exercise the right to control the distribution of derivative or collective works based on the Program.

In addition, mere aggregation of another work not based on the Program with the Program (or with a work based on the Program) on a volume of a storage or distribution medium does not bring the other work under the scope of this License.

3. You may copy and distribute the Program (or a work based on it, under Section 2) in object code or executable form under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above provided that you also do one of the following:

a) Accompany it with the complete corresponding machine-readable source code, which must be distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or,

b) Accompany it with a written offer, valid for at least three years, to give any third party, for a charge no more than your cost of physically performing source distribution, a complete machine-readable copy of the corresponding source code, to be distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or,

c) Accompany it with the information you received as to the offer to distribute corresponding source code. (This alternative is allowed only for noncommercial distribution and only if you received the program in object code or executable form with such an offer, in accord with Subsection b above.)

The source code for a work means the preferred form of the work for making modifications to it. For an executable work, complete source code means all the source code for all modules it contains, plus any associated interface definition files, plus the scripts used to control compilation and installation of the executable. However, as a special exception, the source code distributed need not include anything that is normally distributed (in either source or binary form) with the major components (compiler, kernel, and so on) of the operating system on which the executable runs, unless that component itself accompanies the executable.

If distribution of executable or object code is made by offering access to copy from a designated place, then offering equivalent access to copy the source code from the same place counts as distribution of the source code, even though third parties are not compelled to copy the source along with the object code.

4. You may not copy, modify, sublicense, or distribute the Program except as expressly provided under this License. Any attempt otherwise to copy, modify, sublicense or distribute the Program is void, and will automatically terminate your rights under this License. However, parties who have received copies, or rights, from you under this License will not have their licenses terminated so long as such parties remain in full compliance.

5. You are not required to accept this License, since you have not signed it. However, nothing else grants you permission to modify or distribute the Program or its derivative works. These actions are prohibited by law if you do not accept this License. Therefore, by modifying or distributing the Program (or any work based on the Program), you indicate your acceptance of this License to do so, and all its terms and conditions for copying, distributing or modifying the Program or works based on it.

6. Each time you redistribute the Program (or any work based on the Program), the recipient automatically receives a license from the original licensor to copy, distribute or modify the Program subject to these terms and conditions. You may not impose any further restrictions on the recipients' exercise of the rights granted herein. You are not responsible for enforcing compliance by third parties to this License.

7. If, as a consequence of a court judgment or allegation of patent infringement or for any other reason (not limited to patent issues), conditions are imposed on you (whether by court order, agreement or otherwise) that contradict the conditions of this License, they do not excuse you from the conditions of this License. If you cannot distribute so as to satisfy simultaneously your obligations under this License and any other pertinent obligations, then as a consequence you may not distribute the Program at all. For example, if a patent license would not permit royalty-free redistribution of the Program by all those who receive copies directly or indirectly through you, then the only way you could satisfy both it and this License would be to refrain entirely from distribution of the Program.

If any portion of this section is held invalid or unenforceable under any particular circumstance, the balance of the section is intended to apply and the section as a whole is intended to apply in other circumstances.

It is not the purpose of this section to induce you to infringe any patents or other property right claims or to contest validity of any such claims; this section has the sole purpose of protecting the integrity of the free software distribution system, which is implemented by public license practices. Many people have made generous contributions to the wide range of software distributed through that system in reliance on consistent application of that system; it is up to the author/donor to decide if he or she is willing to distribute software through any other system and a licensee cannot impose that choice.

This section is intended to make thoroughly clear what is believed to be a consequence of the rest of this License.

8. If the distribution and/or use of the Program is restricted in certain countries either by patents or by copyrighted interfaces, the original copyright holder who places the Program under this License may add an explicit geographical distribution limitation excluding those countries, so that distribution is permitted only in or among countries not thus excluded. In such case, this License incorporates the limitation as if written in the body of this License.

9. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or new versions of the General Public License from time to time. Such new versions will be similar in spirit to the present version, but may differ in detail to address new problems or concerns.

Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Program specifies a version number of this License which applies to it and "any later version", you have the option of following the terms and conditions either of that version or of any later version published by the Free Software Foundation. If the Program does not specify a version number of this License, you may choose any version ever published by the Free Software Foundation.

10. If you wish to incorporate parts of the Program into other free programs whose distribution conditions are different, write to the author to ask for permission. For software which is copyrighted by the Free Software Foundation, write to the Free Software Foundation; we sometimes make exceptions for this. Our decision will be guided by the two goals of preserving the free status of all derivatives of our free software and of promoting the sharing and reuse of software generally.

11. BECAUSE THE PROGRAM IS LICENSED FREE OF CHARGE, THERE IS NO WARRANTY FOR THE PROGRAM, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW. EXCEPT WHEN OTHERWISE STATED IN WRITING THE COPYRIGHT HOLDERS AND/OR OTHER PARTIES PROVIDE THE PROGRAM "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. THE ENTIRE RISK AS TO THE QUALITY AND PERFORMANCE OF THE PROGRAM IS WITH YOU. SHOULD THE PROGRAM PROVE DEFECTIVE, YOU ASSUME THE COST OF ALL NECESSARY SERVICING, REPAIR OR CORRECTION.

12. IN NO EVENT UNLESS REQUIRED BY APPLICABLE LAW OR AGREED TO IN WRITING WILL ANY COPYRIGHT HOLDER, OR ANY OTHER PARTY WHO MAY MODIFY AND/OR REDISTRIBUTE THE PROGRAM AS PERMITTED ABOVE, BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR DAMAGES, INCLUDING ANY GENERAL, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THE USE OR INABILITY TO USE THE PROGRAM (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO LOSS OF DATA OR DATA BEING RENDERED INACCURATE OR LOSSES SUSTAINED BY YOU OR THIRD PARTIES OR A FAILURE OF THE PROGRAM TO OPERATE WITH ANY OTHER PROGRAMS), EVEN IF SUCH HOLDER OR OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

<center>How to Apply These Terms to Your New Programs</center>

If you develop a new program, and you want it to be of the greatest possible use to the public, the best way to achieve this is to make it free software which everyone can redistribute and change under these terms.

To do so, attach the following notices to the program. It is safest to attach them to the start of each source file to most effectively convey the exclusion of warranty; and each file should have at least the "copyright" line and a pointer to where the full notice is found.

<one line to give the program's name and a brief idea of what it does.>

Copyright (C) <year> <name of author>

This program is free software; you can redistribute it and/or modify it under the terms of the GNU General Public License as published by the Free Software Foundation; either version 2 of the License, or (at your option) any later version.

This program is distributed in the hope that it will be useful, but WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY; without even the implied warranty of MERCHANTABILITY or FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. See the GNU General Public License for more details.

You should have received a copy of the GNU General Public License along with this program; if not, write to the Free Software Foundation, Inc., 51 Franklin Street, Fifth Floor, Boston, MA 02110-1301 USA.

Also add information on how to contact you by electronic and paper mail.

If the program is interactive, make it output a short notice like this when it starts in an interactive mode:

Gnomovision version 69, Copyright (C) year name of author

Gnomovision comes with ABSOLUTELY NO WARRANTY; for details type `show w'.

This is free software, and you are welcome to redistribute it under certain conditions; type `show c' for details.

The hypothetical commands `show w' and `show c' should show the appropriate parts of the General Public License. Of course, the commands you use may be called something other than `show w' and `show c'; they could even be mouse-clicks or menu items--whatever suits your program.

You should also get your employer (if you work as a programmer) or your school, if any, to sign a "copyright disclaimer" for the program, if necessary. Here is a sample; alter the names:

Yoyodyne, Inc., hereby disclaims all copyright interest in the program `Gnomovision' (which makes passes at compilers) written by James Hacker.

This General Public License does not permit incorporating your program into proprietary programs. If your program is a subroutine library, you may consider it more useful to permit linking proprietary applications with the library. If this is what you want to do, use the GNU Lesser General Public License instead of this License.
